Graham. Hundreds of photographs capture many of the plastic model kits made by Revell from the 1950s-70s in scales from 1/16 to 1/72. You'll also meet the kit designers and box artists! Enjoy a useful index that lists all of the models produced, along with their variations and values. 176 pages, 544 color photos, 8½"x 11", softcover. #6340 $29.95

Nearly 550 Color Photos!

Rommel's Rod Kit

In 1969, famous hot rod artist Tom Daniel designed this Rommel's Rod caricature kit as a follow-up to the wildly popular Red Baron kit. This re-issued edition of that famous, 1/24 scale plastic kit features a Mercedes front and a half-track rear, a swivel-mounted machine gun, vinyl tires, skeleton driver and Rommel figures, and more. Assembly required. 71 pieces. 9" long. #83671 $29.95

Lacrosse Missile Kit

Designed for close support of ground troops, the Lacrosse Missile was developed in the mid-1950s with its official Army introduction in 1959. Ultimately, its many technical hurdles were too difficult to overcome and it was withdrawn from front line service in 1964. A reproduction of the Cold War missile equipped to its transport, this 1/32 scale plastic kit features moveable front wheels, a detailed engine, an authentic weapon design, and five crew figures. Assembly required. 139 pieces. Skill level 2. 10" long. #702106 $49.95

Tom Daniel Show Rod Kits

Just 4 Fun Hollywood Movies

Unstoppable

Hang on for the ride of your life as a veteran railroad engineer (Denzel Washington) and inexperienced conductor (Chris Pine) team up to stop a runaway train that's transporting toxic chemicals – and barreling toward Scranton, Pennsylvania! Thousands of lives hang in the balance as these ordinary men chase down a million tons of hurtling steel and prevent an epic disaster. 1 hr. 38 min. #RV3299 $9.95

The Hurricane Express

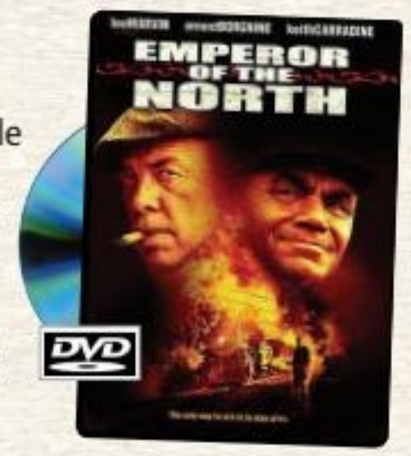

In this 12-chapter serial from 1932, John Wayne stars as a pilot who goes after a mystery villain – "The Wrecker" – responsible for a crash that killed Wayne's father on the Hurricane Express, the world's fastest train. Enjoy incredible action scenes including charging trains, aerial scenes, speeding autos, and a motorcycle chase that Wayne did himself!
B&W, 3 hrs. 46 min. #V7155 $9.95

Midnight Limited

In this 1940 thriller, an elusive criminal is at work aboard the night train from New York to Montreal, leaving his victims bound, gagged and penniless. After the phantom kills his best agent, an ace railroad detective goes undercover – posing as a rich traveler – to bring the killer to justice.
B&W, 1 hour. #RV2060 $9.95

Emperor of the North

With an all-star cast that includes Lee Marvin, Ernest Borgnine and Keith Carradine, this Depression-era tale of a brutal conductor and the hobo who will risk his very life to ride the conductor's freight train is one of the greatest railroad films ever made. Includes the theatrical trailer. Widescreen.
2 hours. #RV6996 $14.95

The Train

In this 1964 classic, Burt Lancaster plays a French train engineer who, during the waning days of World War II, tries to prevent Nazi colonel Paul Scofield from transporting a precious art collection back to Germany. Can Lancaster and his Resistance colleagues – utilizing sabotage and cunning deception – stall for time with the Allies on their way? Authentic explosions, acrobatic stunts and Lancaster's brilliant wit help make this a WWII classic. Widescreen, 2 hours. #RV6982 $19.95

How the West Was Won

Special Edition

Academy Award Winner!

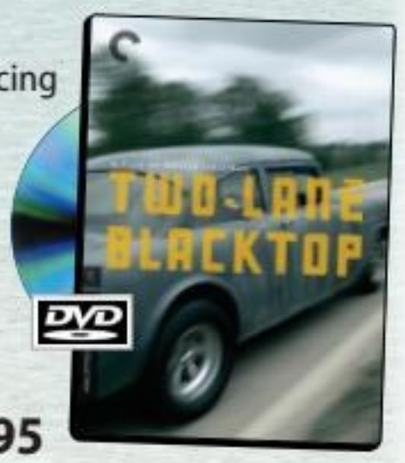

Boasting an all-star cast with John Wayne, James Stewart, Henry Fonda, Carroll Baker, and Gregory Peck, this 1962 epic follows four generations of a family as they move from New York to the Pacific coast and witness events that shaped the nation, from the migration west to the Civil War and the rise of the railroads. Winner of three Academy Awards! 2 hrs. 46 min. on 3 DVDs. #RV3327 $21.95

Red Line 7000

Among the most revered racing epics of all times, Red Line 7000 – released in 1965 – features the unforgettable performance of a young James Caan. Follow all of the dramatic action, including romantic intrigue and trackside tragedy, while also enjoying the film's true stars: the Shelby GT-350 and Cobra Daytona Coupe! 1 hr. 50 min. #404329 $19.95

Two-Lane Blacktop

Two iconic musicians team up to star in this 1971 racing classic: singer-songwriter James Taylor and Beach Boys drummer Dennis Wilson. Playing their roles as driver and mechanic, they tour the country in their souped-up '55 Chevy – until they meet a fellow GTO driver and begin a costly race to see which one obtains the losers' car. This 2-disc edition includes exciting extras, such as outtakes and audio commentary. 1 hr. 42 min. #402791 $39.95

Danger on Wheels

After designing a revolutionary engine and entering it in an auto race, Pop O'Shea can only watch in anguish as its car goes up in flames. The aftermath is a whirlwind as stuntman Lucky Taylor, blamed for the wreck, must clear his name and find a way to reenter O'Shea's now-banned engine into the race – without alerting track officials!
1 hr. 1 min. #RV7772 $9.95

The Cannonball Run

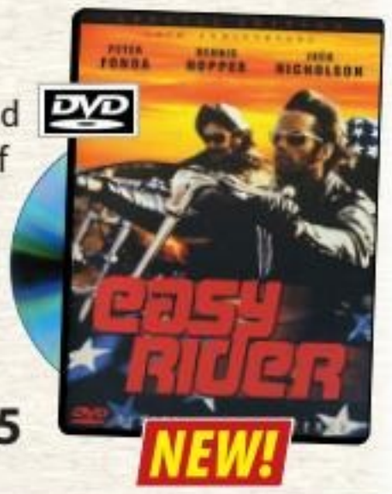

With the likes of Burt Reynolds, Roger Moore, Dom DeLuise, and Farrah Fawcett, this star-studded, 1981 fast-action comedy won't disappoint! Gathering in Connecticut, teams sign up to race cross country to the west coast for the ultimate prize – fame, glory, and riches. Anything goes in this all-out, madcap dash as racers play dirty and use their modified autos to do whatever it takes to cross the finish line first. 1 hr. 35 min. #KV00073 $9.95

Thunder Road

Featuring both a DVD and Blu-Ray version of the film, this 2-disc set pays tribute to Thunder Road – a 1958 picture starring Robert Mitchum as Korean War veteran Lucas Doolin. Returning home, he finds himself unexpectedly in charge of his family's moonshine business, running the illegal booze to various Southern distribution points in his souped-up hot rod, all while attempting to evade rivals and law enforcement! 1 hr. 33 min. #404331 $24.95

Easy Rider

This edgy film perfectly conveys the dreams, hopes, and despair of the 1960s counterculture. Following a pair of two Harley-riding hippies as they travel cross country, they search for spiritual truth at a time in America when things like peace and harmony are hard to come by. Starring Peter Fonda and Jack Nicholson, this is a classic piece of cinema you won't want to miss. 1 hr. 35 mins. #407241 $16.95
