Dear Fellow Railfan,

In July 2020, America proudly celebrates its 244th birthday – and to commemorate this impressive milestone, we're presenting a model train replica of the American Freedom #4449. Designed in a colorful red, white, and blue paint scheme, it comes equipped for DCC & Sound and is found right here on page 2, along with a patriotic jigsaw puzzle.

In addition, you can browse through the rest of the catalog and add more rail-themed items to your collection. You can find more patriotic items on page 46, new t-shirt designs on page 20, and a selection of nostalgic vehicles on pages 28-29.

So, peruse the catalog and choose your favorites! Then call us toll free at 800-261-5922, mail in the order form provided, or place your order online at HistoricRail.com.

Thanks for shopping with us!

Boston and Maine Locomotives

Heald. Explore the history of the locomotives that powered New England's most dominant line throughout the 19th and 20th Century. You'll see steam-powered Ten Wheelers, Mastodons and Pacifics, as well as contemporary diesels perform freight and passenger duties.

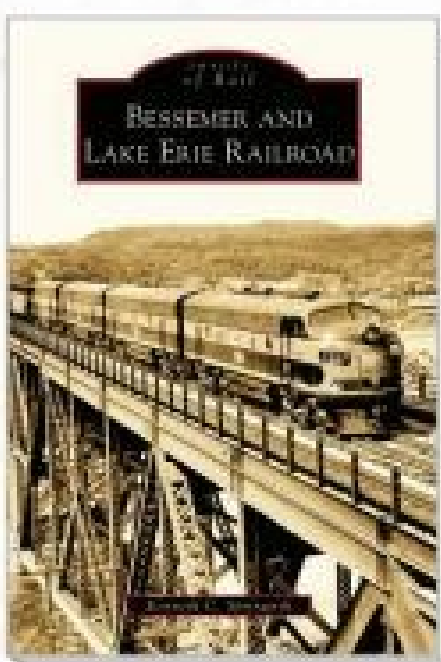

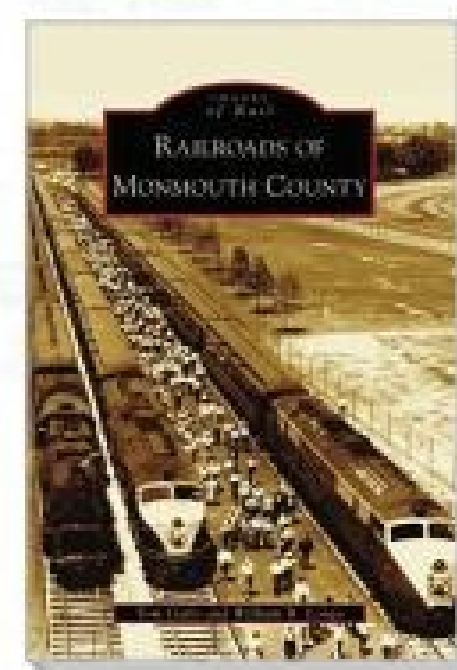

#R01324

Railroads of Monmouth County – Gallo & Longo.

Explore the history of New Jersey's Monmouth County railroads, which cut through the rich farmlands of the Garden State to transport goods and commuters to and from New York City, Newark, Jersey City and the Jersey Shore. You'll view the steam and diesel locomotives that plied the steel rails as well as trains, stations, and operations.

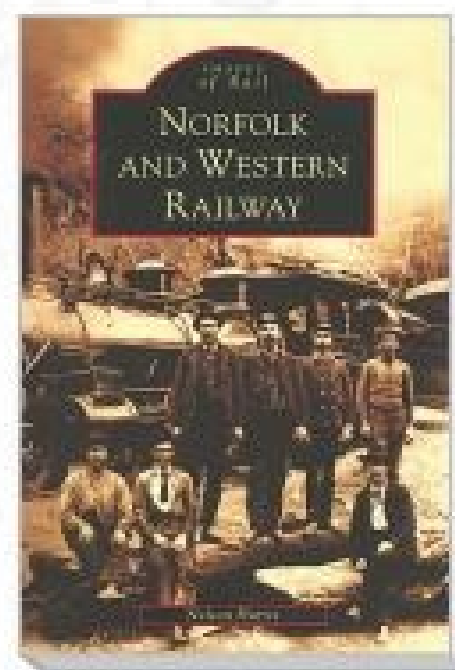

#R02379

Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad – Springirth.

Andrew Carnegie's vision to transport iron ore from his boats on Lake Erie to his Pittsburgh steel mills was realized when he obtained ownership of a series of railroad companies in the region. In 1900, these companies became the Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad. This book highlights the steam and diesel locomotives used on the well-maintained line, and takes you along on the railroad's passenger excursions.

#R02484

Norfolk and Western Railway

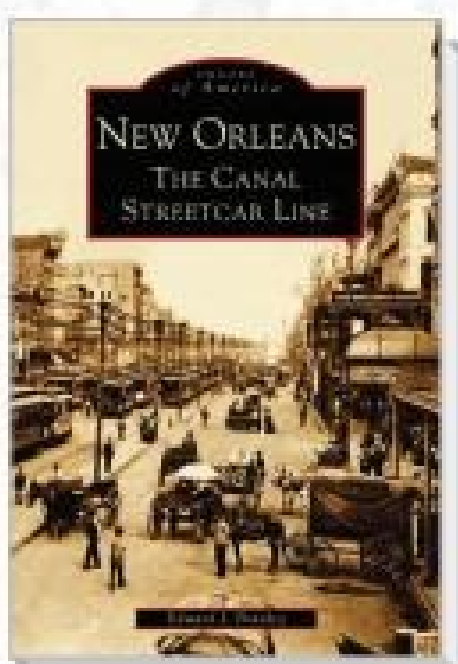

Harris. This compilation is taken directly from N&W company files and the Virginia Museum of Transportation. You'll see engine crews, shop gangs, freight agents, and gandydancers, and get a look at the dangerous days of railroading in the late 1800s through the N&W's rise as a railroad icon.

#R01337

New Orleans the Canal Streetcar Line

Branley. Examine New Orleans' Canal Streetcar Line from its origins; through its golden years, decline and disappearance; to its triumphant return to operation. You'll see how the line linked the Creole Faubourgs to new neighborhoods at Lake Pontchartrain.

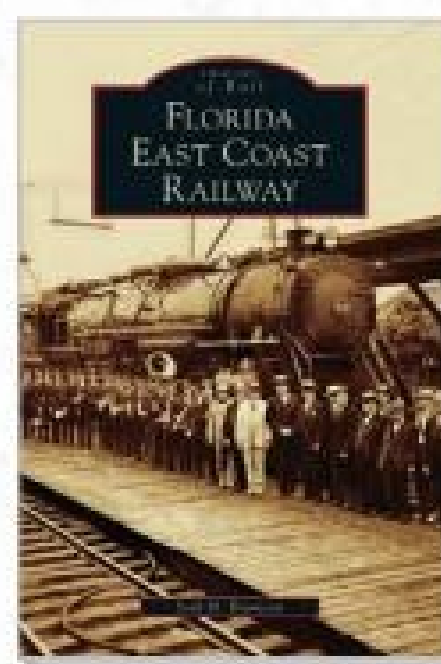

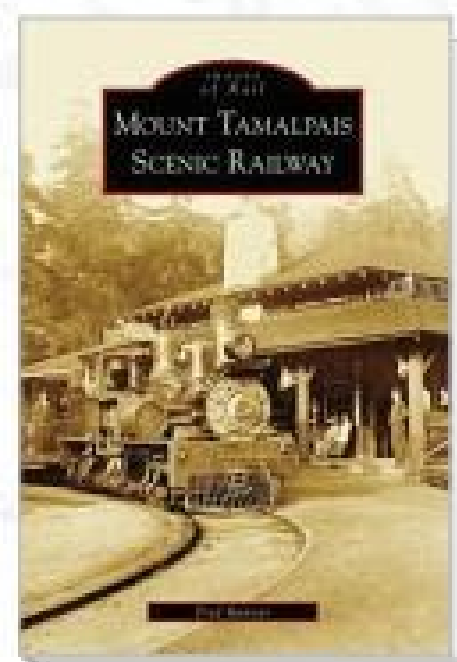

#R01366

Mount Tamalpais Scenic Railway

Runner. Mount Tamalpais Scenic Railway was built in 1896 with 281 curves in eight miles, and was known as the "Crookedest Railroad in the World." You'll climb with it from a depot on the dirt streets of Mill Valley, through a redwood forest, to the rocky summit a half mile above San Francisco Bay.

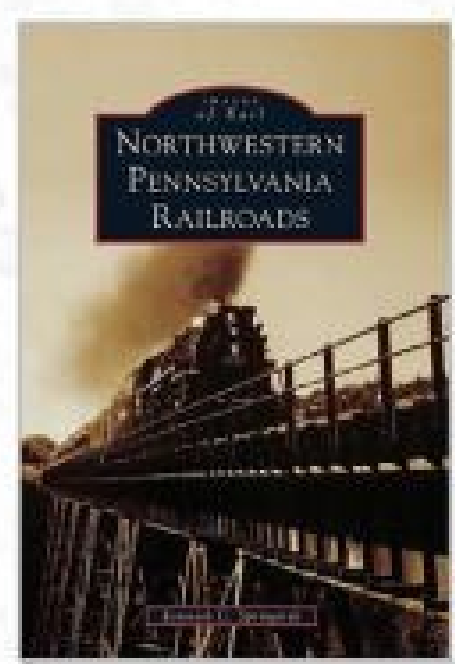

#R03740

Florida East Coast Railway

Bramson. The FEC Railway has offered America fine rail passenger service for more than 110 years. Examine the engineering accomplishments that created the line; its well-maintained roadbeds and motive power; and the precise operations that make the FEC a benchmark for railroads across the country.

#R01374

Northwestern Pennsylvania Railroads

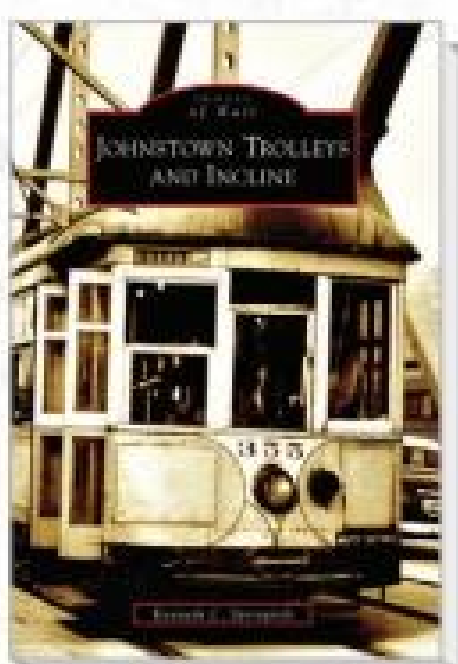

Mullett & Merritt. Examine eastern Oregon's narrow-gauge Sumpter Valley Railway from its 1890 charter through its heyday as a logging and mining railroad. You'll view early steam locomotives, including rod engines and geared Shay, Climax and Heisler engines; and freight and passenger operations.

#R03797

Johnstown Trolleys and Incline

Springirth. Examine the trolley car system, trackless trolleys and the Inclined Plane of the Johnstown Trolley and Incline system, from the Johnstown flood of 1889 through the final day of trolley service in 1960.

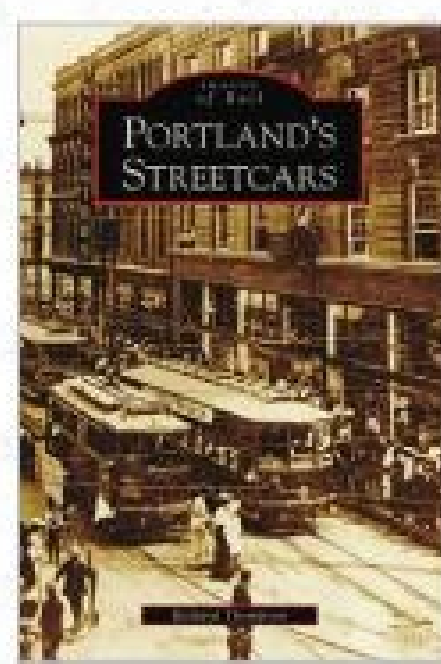

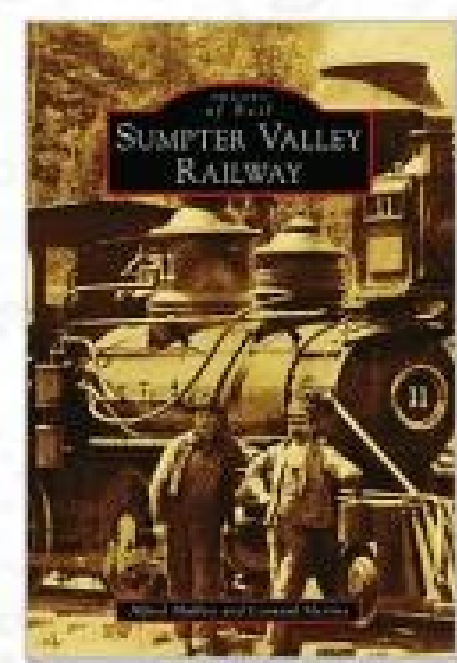

#R01419

Sumpter Valley Railway

Springirth. Learn about the railroads that have served northwestern Pennsylvania from the 1864 completion of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad through the mid-20th century. You'll view archival images of the trains, motive power and operations of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, Pennsylvania, New York Central, Nickel Plate, and Erie.

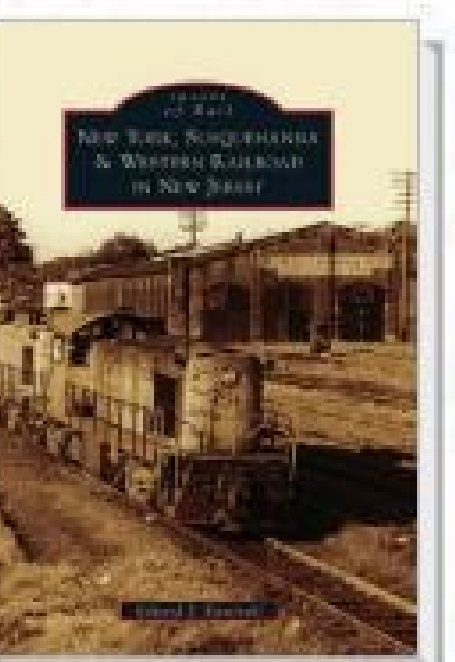

#R03778

Portland's Streetcars

Thompson. Street railways played an integral role in Portland, Oregon's development, and by the dawn of the 20th century, the city had the largest electric railway system in the West. This pictorial presents the development of Portland's streetcars lines – including the steep cable car grades – and its unique equipment.

#R01428

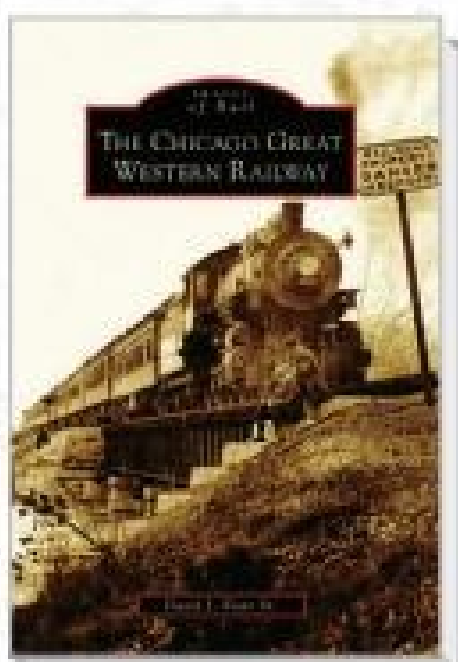

New York, Susquehanna & Western Railroad in New Jersey – Kaminski. This photo-history examines the New York, Susquehanna and Western in New Jersey, from the 1890s to today. You'll see the road emerge from 40 years of Erie Railroad control, several bankruptcies, and abandonments through the development of innovative passenger and freight services.

#R37015

Chicago Great Western Railway

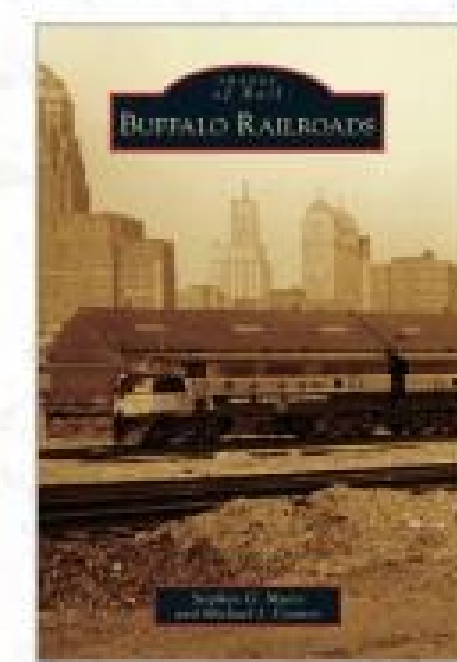

Fiore, Sr. Examine the operations, locomotives, employees, and stations of the Chicago Great Western Railway, a Midwestern line that operated in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska in 1968.

#R01430

Buffalo Railroads – Myers & Connor. As a growing city on Lake Erie, Buffalo, New York, was the second largest railroad hub in America in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Examine the railroads that brought the city to prominence as the stockyard, grain, steel, automotive, and other industries established themselves in the area.

#R37024

Just 4 Fun Hollywood DVDs

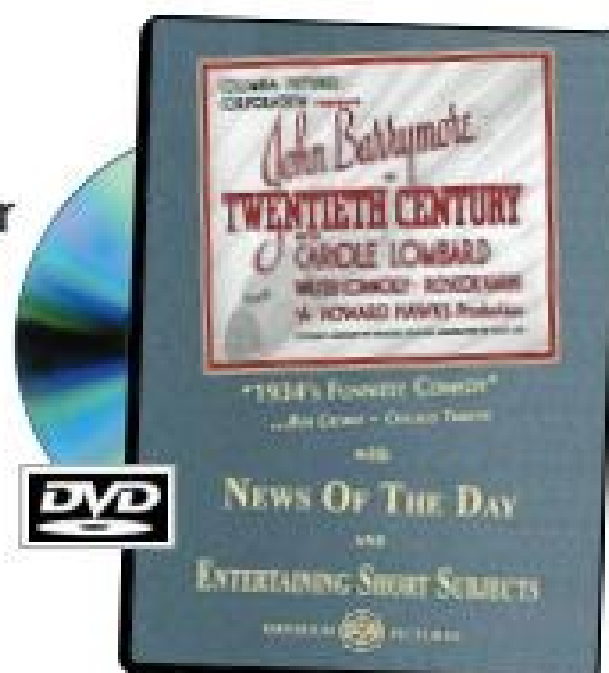

Tough Guys

Directed by Jeff Kanew, this fascinating film follows the thrilling story of the last two men ever to rob a U.S. train. After finally getting out of prison, they decide to rob once again. 1 hr. 44 min. #404136 $19.95

Twentieth Century

A Broadway producer and his latest protégé – who became a star and left him for Hollywood – battle each other on the 20th Century Limited passenger train from Chicago to New York City's Grand Central Station. As a bonus, you get extras, including a Betty Boop cartoon, a Fox Movietone newsreel from the 1930s, a Three Stooges comedy, a "soundie" musical sing-along, and a rare New York Central travelogue. B&W, 1 hr. 31 min.

#RV3038 $17.95

Night Freight

When a local railroad attempts to initiate "Piggy-Back" service, villainous crooks from a competing trucking company attempt to foil the plan. Plenty of romance and drama – laced with liberal amounts of classic 1950s-era railroad equipment – make this a top-notch adventure. B&W, 1 hr. 20 min.

#RV5599 $21.95

The 15:17 to Paris

Directed by Clint Eastwood, this film tells the real-life story of three men and their heroic acts during a high-speed train ride which saved the lives of more than 500 passengers. On August 21, 2015, following a reported terrorist attack on Thalys train #9364 bound for Paris, a trio of Americans overcome the deadly onboard invasion and save the day. 1 hr. 36 min. #106605 $19.95

This Gun for Hire

Pairing Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake – one of the 1940s' most popular romantic teams – for the first time, this 1942 film noir involves a hit man, a nightclub owner, a traitorous industrialist, a senator, foreign spies, a nightclub illusionist, and others in a web of intrigue that leads them to a San Francisco-to-Los Angeles train and the LA rail yards. B&W, 1 hr. 20 min. #RV3283 $14.95

Berlin Express

In this 1948 thriller, a German diplomat is killed on a train bound for Berlin. When four travelers discover that the man killed was a decoy for the real target, the group begins working together trying to find the real diplomat in the streets of post war Germany. Not all on the team are who they seem to be! Extras include a Daffy Duck cartoon, a Three Stooges short, Fox Movietone News, and more. Color & B&W. 2 hrs. 22 min. #RV7462 $17.95

Wild Rides

Biker Triple Feature

This triple feature DVD set includes three biker-themed films: The Wild Ride, which follows an amateur dirt-track driver who kidnaps his pal's girlfriend, kills some cops, and watches his life end in tragedy; The Rebel Rousers, which follows a motorcycle gang that arrives in a small American town; and Biker Babylon which shows a protest march against the Vietnam War and a rowdy biker club that lets it all hang out. 3 hrs. 36 min. #408946 $14.95
